Is Your Child Learning to Read? We Can Help!

Do you have a new or emergent reader at home? Here at Emma Clark Library we have a variety of useful and fun resources for your child that can help improve their literacy skills:

At Home

- Search for books on your child's reading level. Visit kids.emmaclark.org and click on "Reading" and then "Guided Reading" for a list of books. Then just request a book for pick-up at the library!
- Visit kids.emmaclark.org/ebooks for FREE access to eBooks! Tumble Books for Kids and Sesame Street eBooks are animated, talking picture book libraries that help kids learn to read and build vocabulary interactively.

In the Library

- Browse our special section with books by reading level and color-coded so that you can easily find a book for your child to read.
- Play award-winning ABC Mouse for free in the library! Interactive books, educational games, puzzles, and more for ages 2 – 6+. You can even log in and track your child's progress!
- Bring your child in to read to a trained therapy dog. These dogs have been trained to sit quietly and listen. Call 941.4080 ext. 123 and pick a specific date and time (see pg. 15). All reading levels welcome!

FREE
HOMEWORK
HELP!

Free help with homework and standardized tests, along with constructive feedback on essays, through Brainfuse. Mention you are a New York State student and they will put you in touch with a Common Core-trained tutor. Visit kids.emmaclark.org or teen.emmaclark.org.

Book Talks & Tour

"AT THE MUSEUM" TOUR & BOOK DISCUSSION
Tue., Nov. 1, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. at the LI Museum

Tour the Long Island Museum's exhibit, Long Island in the Sixties, with a museum docent, and then discuss Alice McDermott's novel, That Night, which skillfully captures the nuances of suburban Long Island in the sixties. The narrator reflects on an incident involving a teenage couple that occurred when she was a girl. Participants are invited to introduce one piece of Long Island memorabilia from the 1960s during the discussion.

All participants must register. Emma Clark cardholders can register by phone or online, nonresidents may call to register (631-941-4080, ext. 115). Books will be supplied for Emma cardholders; nonresidents must obtain a copy through their own library. Meet at the Long Island Museum Carriage House.

Euterpe Poetry Group

READING BY SUSAN PILEWSKI & MANKH
Fri., Sept. 23, 7:00 – 8:45 p.m.

Susan Pilewski will read poems from her new book, Bones of True Believers, and Mankh will read prose poems from his new book, Musings with the Golden Sparrow. Books will be available for a book signing. Open mic and refreshments.

READING BY VIRGINIA WALKER
Fri., Oct. 7, 7:00 – 8:45 p.m.

Virginia Walker will be reading from her new book, Neuron Mirror, which contains her own poetry and, posthumously, poems of Michael Walsh. She will be remembering other Long Island poets who have died from pancreatic cancer.

WORKSHOP: PERSONALIZING HISTORY: HOW TO BRING HISTORY INTO OUR POETRY

Fri., Nov. 4, 7:00 – 8:45 p.m.

Pramila Venkateswaran will demonstrate how to bring history into our autobiographical writing, thus transforming both the personal and the historical.

No registration required!

SEPTEMBER 2 — MIRACLES FROM HEAVEN

Starring Jennifer Garner (PG) Based on a true story of the Beam family. When Christy discovers her ten year old daughter Anna has a rare, incurable disease, she becomes a ferocious advocate for her daughter's healing as she searches for a solution.

SEPTEMBER 16 — HOLOGRAM FOR THE KING

Starring Tom Hanks (R) In a rising Saudi Arabian city, far from weary, recession-scarred America, a struggling businessman named Alan Clay pursues a last-ditch attempt to stave off foreclosure, pay his daughter's college tuition and finally do something great.

OCTOBER 7 — MOTHER'S DAY

Starring Jennifer Aniston and Julia Roberts (PG-13) This celebration of mothers everywhere invites all to enjoy the laughter, tears and love as three generations come together in the week leading up to Mother's Day.

OCTOBER 21 — ELVIS AND NIXON

Starring Kevin Spacey (R) On a December morning in 1970, the King of Rock 'n' Roll showed up on the lawn of the White House to request a meeting with the most powerful man in the world, President Nixon. Elvis & Nixon illustrates the untold story behind this revealing yet humorous moment in the Oval Office, forever immortalized in the most requested photograph in the National Archives.

Volunteer Opportunities

TECH TUTOR PROGRAM

Earn community service credit throughout the year by joining us for this tech-oriented volunteer opportunity. Students who are at least 12 years old or in grades 7 through 12 can help adults in the community learn how to use their electronic devices and how to download books from the library's e-book collection. The program will take place in the Tech Center on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month (except on holidays) from 6:00–8:30 p.m. Students will not have to commit to attending every session – we will be training a group of volunteers and then rotating among them. Please submit a Teen Tech application available at the Adult Reference Desk or online at teen.emmaclark.org.

TEEN REVIEW PROGRAM

The 2016 Teen Review Program is underway. Teen volunteers in grades 7 through 12 can earn community service credit by reviewing books on the newest list of the American Library Association's Best Books for Teens. Reviews will be shared with other Emma Clark teens. Pick up an application at the Adult Reference Desk or print a copy from our website – teen.emmaclark.org.

CALLING TEEN ARTISTS

We are looking for artistic, creative students in Grades 7 through 12 who would like to exhibit their artwork in our teen art display area. If you would like us to consider exhibiting your artwork, please complete an Art Display application. If your artwork is accepted for display, you will receive 2 hours of community service credit. You can pick up an application at the Adult Reference Desk or print a copy from our website – teen.emmaclark.org.

ART FOR A CAUSE

Tuesday, Sept. 13, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m.

We are looking for artistic, creative students who would like to earn community service credit by using their talents to design and create seasonal displays throughout the school year in the Teen Room. Schedules will be flexible – you will be able to come in and work on displays during times that are convenient for you. Join us for the kick-off meeting on Tuesday, September 13. We will brainstorm ideas for displays and you will get to choose a month (or more) when you will be responsible for designing and creating the display. Teams of students can work together. Registration required.

MINECRAFT VOLUNTEERS

Wednesday, Oct. 12, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. AND/OR

Tuesday, Nov. 8, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

LIVE HOMEWORK HELP WITH BRAINFUSE!

FREE online tutoring is available to students with valid library cards through the Brainfuse link. Visit emmaclark.org/services/you-beyond. Students can connect one-to-one with certified tutors in a secure online classroom. Students at every level – from elementary to advanced – can get help with studying, projects, essay writing and test preparation.

Mention that you're a NY State student and they will put you in touch with a Common Core-trained tutor.

Tutors are available 7 days a week from 2:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.

We are looking for teens who have experience in the following areas to help us with programs and special projects:

- Computer Programming
- Robotics

If you have experience in any of these areas and would like to assist, please contact Nanette Feder, Teen Services Librarian, at teens@emmaclark.org.

Children's Programs

Registration for children's programs can be done online at kids.emmaclark.org, in person, or by telephone at (631) 941-4080 ext.123 with your child's library card. Please give us a call at the above number if you are unable to attend a program, or are going to be late arriving (so we can keep your spot). After 5 minutes of the program start time ALL spots will be given to the "Standby List". If your child is "Wait-Listed" for a program, this does not give them priority for "Standby". The "Standby" list will start 30 minutes prior to each class at the Children's Library Desk.

It is the policy of the library that children under the age of 11 years cannot be left unattended.
