AZ QUOTES

Focusing on...

Local Focus

Come Celebrate with Us! When we created our Local Focus collection in 2013, we introduced it to the community with the following announcement:

Continuing its tradition of recognizing and encouraging resident authors..., the library is excited to announce the creation of a new collection called Local Focus which will expedite your access to the books written by your neighbors... Effective immediately, all authors from the Three Village area are invited and encouraged to donate copies of their published works for inclusion in this small but growing Local Focus collection...

Since its inception, the Local Focus collection has far exceeded our original expectations, and it continues to grow through your generosity. In celebration, we are hosting a reception honoring "our" authors on Sunday afternoon, April 30. Please join us and take advantage of this opportunity to meet your author-neighbors. You'll find full details on page 7.

Instagram CONTEST

Post your most inspiring, original, creative photo of Emma Clark Library (interior or exterior) on Instagram by May 31 for a chance to win! Follow our Instagram account (@emmaclarklibrary) and be sure to use our handle and #MyEmmaClarkLibrary in the post with the photo.

The winner will be announced on Monday, June 12 on Instagram. The winning entry will then be reposted on all of our social media (Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and obviously Instagram!) AND the photo will be printed and displayed in the library's lobby for the Summer. Become a local celebrity!

Contest Rules:

- Photo must be either of the exterior or interior of the building and recognizable as Emma Clark Library
 - One submission per Instagram account
- Entrants give permission to share, repost, and print the entries
 - Entries must be solely original photographs. Using photographs from other sources will result in disqualification from the contest
 - Entrants must have permission to use a person's face or image in their entry
 - Emma Clark employees, trustees, and their immediate family members are not eligible to enter.

You think your pain and your heartbreak are unprecedented in the history of the world, but then you read. — JAMES BALDWIN

Emma Clark Librarian Carolyn Emerson secured a grant from Humanities NY, the sole statewide proponent of public access to the humanities, to make this unique Reading & Discussion possible for our community!

JAMES BALDWIN'S AMERICA: A READING AND DISCUSSION SERIES

Tuesdays from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.
4/25, 5/9, 5/23 & 6/6

In partnership with Humanities New York, we are offering a four-session series based on James Baldwin's writings.

"The great force of history comes from the fact that we carry it within us, are unconsciously controlled by it in many ways and history is literally present in all that we do," declared Baldwin.

Examining Baldwin's writings, which are as relevant as ever, can bring us into conversation around significant issues in our country: democracy, freedom and equality.

Participants will complete readings in the books supplied and attend discussions facilitated by scholars.

Flyers with more details are available in the Library. Registration begins March 1.

JAMES BALDWIN'S AMERICA: A READING AND DISCUSSION SERIES

Tuesdays from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.
4/25, 5/9, 5/23 & 6/6

In partnership with Humanities New York, we are offering a four-session series based on James Baldwin's writings.

"The great force of history comes from the fact that we carry it within us, are unconsciously controlled by it in many ways and history is literally present in all that we do," declared Baldwin.

Examining Baldwin's writings, which are as relevant as ever, can bring us into conversation around significant issues in our country: democracy, freedom and equality.

Participants will complete readings in the books supplied and attend discussions facilitated by scholars.

Flyers with more details are available in the Library. Registration begins March 1.

 We will be making cat toys for our feline friends which will be donated to local pet shelters.

DOG TREATS

Tuesday, May 16, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
 We will be making dog biscuits and donating them to local pet shelters. You will earn one hour of community service credit for preparing the biscuits. If you bake the biscuits at home and return them to the library, you will earn an additional hour. Please bring a mixing bowl and mixing spoon.

Are you looking for a way to help others, earn community service credit and use your leadership skills? We are looking for teens who have ideas for community service projects that they would like to share with other teens. Teens who are willing to take charge of running a session in our new TeenConnect program can earn several hours of community service credit. If you have program ideas, contact Nanette Feder, Teen Services Librarian, at teens@emmaclark.org.

AUTHORS UNLIMITED

Saturday, Apr. 22, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

at St. Joseph's College

Earn community service credit for attending this event, which celebrates reading by connecting teens and authors. It is a free program where teens and tweens get preferred seating! Attendees will get the chance to meet dynamic authors of young adult literature, first at an author panel and then in smaller breakout sessions afterward.

Register online at authorsunlimited.org.

PET FAIR

Saturday, May 20, 9:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Responsibilities will include: helping to set up tables and chairs, bringing water to the pets and cleaning up after the fair. Volunteers will earn community service credit. If you are interested in volunteering for a 2 hour time slot, please contact Nanette Feder, Teen Services Librarian at teens@emmaclark.org.

MINECRAFT VOLUNTEERS

Thursday, Apr. 13, 2:30 – 3:30 p.m.

We are looking for high school students to help us run this Minecraft program and earn community service credit. Volunteers must be knowledgeable about the game. This program will take place in the Technology Center. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Nanette Feder, Teen Services Librarian at teens@emmaclark.org.

LEGO CLUB VOLUNTEERS

Friday, Mar. 24, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. AND/OR

Friday, Apr. 28, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. AND/OR

Friday, May 26, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

We are looking for teen volunteers who loved building with LEGOs and would like to share ideas with young enthusiasts, ages 5–10 yrs. Volunteers will earn community service credit.

CALLING TEEN ARTISTS

We are looking for artistic, creative students in Grades 7–12 who would like to exhibit their artwork in our teen art display area. Please complete an Art Display application which is available at the Adult Reference Desk or online at teen.emmaclark.org. If your artwork is accepted for display, you will receive 2 hours of community service credit.

TEEN REVIEW PROGRAM

Teen volunteers in Grades 7–12 can earn community service credit by reviewing books from the American Library Association's Best Books for Teens list. Reviews will be shared with other Emma Clark Teens. Please complete an application which is available at the Adult Reference Desk or online at teen.emmaclark.org.

TEEN TALENT SHARE

Do you have a special talent, skill or hobby that you would like to share with other teens? Earn community service credit over the summer by running a program spotlighting your skill or talent. For example, you can run a craft or art program, teach photography, direct a short film. We will select several teens to run programs based on the needs and time constraints of the library. To be considered, please submit an application, available at the Adult Reference Desk or online at teen.emmaclark.org no later than March 6, 2017.

Children's Programs

Registration for children's programs can be done online at kids.emmaclark.org, in person, or by telephone at 631-941-4080 ext.123 with your child's library card. Please give us a call at the above number if you are unable to attend a program or are going to be arriving late (so we can keep your spot). After 5 minutes of the program start time ALL spots will be given to the "Standby List". If your child is "Wait-Listed" for a program, this does not give them priority for "Standby". The "Standby" list will start 30 minutes prior to each class at the Children's Library Reference Desk. It is the policy of the library that children under the age of 11 years cannot be left unattended.

Time For Baby

Books Bring History Alive & Families Together!

Book discussion for Grades 4 – 6 with their family at the Long Island Museum

Join us for this unique collaborative book club. This will include a discussion and an opportunity to tour a new exhibit at the museum that will enhance the book we are reading.

Before we begin our discussion on Sunday, May 21, we will explore the exhibit

Midnight Rum: Long Island and Prohibition. This exhibition is an opportunity to look at an important national story as experienced through the lives of New Yorkers, both rural & urban.

BLACK DUCK BY JANET TAYLOR LISLE

Sunday, May 21, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

When Ruben and Jed find the dead body on the Rhode Island shore, they are certain it has something to do with smuggling liquor. It is the 1920's, Prohibition is in full swing, and almost everyone in the shore community is involved.

Suddenly, the boys find themselves involved as well. Didn't the dead man have something on him, and didn't they take it? It isn't long before Ruben is actually on the legendary Black Duck itself, caught in a war between two of the most ferocious prohibition gangs. IN-PERSON registration at the library begins Saturday, Apr. 22. Books will be supplied at the time of registration.

Books Are Our Friends!

Have you and your friends joined our Winter Reading Club?

You can celebrate friendship, silliness and all things reading with our Winter Reading Club inspired by Mo Willems' beloved Pigeon, Knuffle Bunny, and Elephant & Piggie books.

Remember, if you reach our reading goal you will be able to register for our special

Grins & Grins comedy variety show performance on Saturday, March 25.

Please see a Children's Librarian to register.

PHOTO-SHOOT

We had so much fun incorporating your children into our Summer Reading Club decorations over the last two years, that we're going to do it again.

This summer's theme is
"Build a Better World!"

Each photo shoot will take approximately 15 minutes.

Saturday, Mar. 4,

Important Information...

Stormy Weather? When library hours are changed due to inclement weather, information can be found through:

- emmaclark.org
- Our Facebook & Twitter pages
- TV Station: News 12

- FM Radio Stations: WALK 97.5 & WBAB 102.3 & WBLI 106.1

If uncertain, call the Library at 631-941-4080 before you make the trip. When the Library is closed or has a delayed opening an extra day will automatically be added to the loan period for all items due that day. No fines are accrued for days the Library is closed.

Please let us know in advance if you will need an accommodation in order to make an event accessible to you. Pictures taken at library events or activities may be posted online, printed in our newsletter or displayed in-house. If you do not want yourself and/or your minor child photographed, please notify the photographer covering the event.
