Focusing on...

Little Free Library is back!

The Little Free Library is at West Meadow Beach again, and it will be maintained by our wonderful teen volunteers for the months of July & August. Look for it under the pavilion and pick up a good beach read!

HOW WAS THE PROGRAM?

There are short, simple program feedback forms located outside of the Children's Program Room and the Vincent R. O'Leary Community Room for your convenience.

TEEN SERVICES DEPT. FOOD DRIVE!

FOOD DRIVE

During the month of July, teen volunteers will be collecting nonperishable food items which will be donated to local food pantries. Any donations would be appreciated. Donation boxes will be located in the lobby to the left of the Circulation Desk. If you have any questions, contact Nanette Feder, Teen Services Librarian, at 631-941-4080 ext. 116 or email teens@emmaclark.org.

In March, we announced the winners of our Helen Stein Shack Picture Book Award

First Place Prize Winner:
(Grades 7 – 9 category)

ELIANA SASSON for We Can Still Be Friends!

First Place Prize Winner:
(Grades 10 – 12 category)

KATIE ZHAO for Claire and Her Bear

Second Place Prize Winner:
(Grades 7 – 9 category)

NICOLE FREELEY for Sammy the Sock Monkey

Second Place Prize Winner:
(Grades 10 – 12 category)

CASSIDY OLIVER for Color Your World

On April 27th, we recognized these wonderful teens at a reception during which we awarded scholarship money to each of the First & Second Place Prize Winners. Bound books for all winning entries were presented and added to the library's Local Focus Collection – emmaclark.org/local-focus.

In attendance at the awards ceremony were the family of Helen Stein Shack (who established a substantial endowment with the library to cover the cost of the scholarship), Assemblyman Steve Englebright, Library Board President Linda Josephs, Trustee Deborah Blair, Trustee Richard Russell, William F. Connors, Jr. (President of the Board of Education), Kevin Scanlon (Assistant Superintendent), April Hatcher (Ward Melville High School Librarian) and Nicole Connelly (Junior High School Librarian). Winners received certificates from Senator Flanagan, Legislator Hahn and Councilwoman Cartright.

A very special thank you to The Bite Size Bake Shop, a local Three Village business, that generously donated desserts for the event and to our local teen volunteer Mimi Zahed for taking beautiful pictures.

HEY KIDS...

HOW WOULD YOU
BUILD A BETTER WORLD?

See page 14 for more details!

Children's Programs

Children from Birth – 6th Grade are invited to join the Summer Reading Club and attend the fun programs and events we have planned for this summer.

The Summer Reading Club is a fun way to include reading and related activities in summer family time. It helps children maintain and improve reading skills, and keeps their minds active. Readers enter school in the fall ready to learn, read and succeed!

To REGISTER:

Go to our Kids page at kids.emmaclark.org and look for our SRC icon and follow the instructions. Or visit us at the Children's Reference Desk, and we can assist you.

*Parents: Step-by-step instructions can be found on our kids' web page and at the Children's Reference Desk. Instructions will also be sent home with your child in June when we visit their school.

Starting Monday, June 19

Pick up your child's book bag filled with goodies.

Starting Monday, June 26

Prizes will be awarded to the children that have read at least one book for that week.

Parents & Caregivers...

Looking for a place to meet for a Play Date? Why not meet here at the Library?

We have books, puzzles, computers, tablets and a room with blocks for the kids to enjoy. No need to clean your house before or after your play date, we'll take care of that.

Summer Reading Celebration Performance

*For families with children
2 years and older.*

Let's celebrate all of the summer reading that took place in the Three Village Community.

Join us on the Library front lawn as we welcome the National Circus Project.

The Circus performers will pack a panoramic presentation of circus skills into a bundle of comedy and variety routines, with lots of audience interaction and participation. No registration required. All children must be registered in the summer reading club.

WILLY WONKA'S WONKAVILLE

Monday, June 26, 6:45 - 7:45 p.m.

A World of Pure Imagination David Engel is the reclusive inventor of sweets to entertain your Oompa Loompahs. He will give you silly challenges, fun-loving mayhem and a chance to prove yourselves worthy of a Golden Ticket! Continuing his famous search for Good Kids, Mr. Wonka combines active, full-audience participation with real magic, original music, bubble play, eye-popping puppetry, goofy props and slapstick antics in this heart-warming show. So channel your inner child, be a part of this comedy show and help us to kick off our Summer Reading Club 2017! Registration starts Monday, Jun. 19.

SCAVENGER HUNT

Come try our annual Children's Library Scavenger Hunt! This fun, challenging game allows you to explore our collections and discover the library's resources. A new installment is available each week of the Summer Reading Club. No registration is necessary, just stop at the Children's Reference Desk for more information.

Good Luck!

THE EMMA CUP IS BACK!

ARE YOU READY FOR YOUR SCHOOL TO WIN?

For the 3rd year, we're hosting a friendly competition between the local elementary schools.

The school that has the highest percentage of children that sign up for and finish the Summer Reading Club will have their school and year inscribed on the trophy.

Staller Center's "Instrument" Petting Zoo

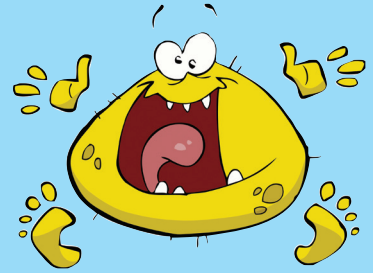

Ages 3 – 5 years with parent/caregiver
Tuesday, Jun. 27, 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Professional musicians from Stony Brook University's Staller Center are back and will demonstrate various instruments and discuss how each sound is made. Children will have a chance to touch & play with the instruments, and everyone leaves with a musical gift!

*Registration begins

Thank You...

to all the parents that brought their children to our photo shoots!

Hour of Code

During this fun and engaging program you will learn the basics of computer programming. Using a simple programming language, called BLOCKLY, you will be challenged to perform actions using well known game and movie characters. [Parents: Please stay for the first 15 minutes to help your children register for a free account or sign them up prior to attending.] All levels welcome.

ORA DANCE PROGRAM

Mondays, Jun. 5, 12 & 19, 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

The Ora Dance Program is an entry-level dance class that combines popular Latin dance styles, great music and fun without the aggressive atmosphere, high impact movements or intimidating instructors. In addition, this program includes specially choreographed dance moves meant to enhance balance, cognitive function, motor learning, postural strength and more. Experience the difference! This is the most fun you'll have being healthy! This program is given by Kristine Morrow, certified dance instructor. Space is limited. Registration begins May 17.

ROUTE 25: LONG ISLAND'S ROUTE 66

Wednesday, Jun. 7, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Route 25 stretches from the very western part of Manhattan all the way to the Orient Point Ferry Terminal at the far eastern tip of Long Island's North Fork. Along the way, this iconic thoroughfare has different names but one common purpose: to stitch together the communities of Long Island and to provide a direct route for commerce and town identity. In this fascinating program, Eco-Photo Explorers will reveal the historic past of Route 25 and examine its special place in the lives of all Long Islanders through photographs and stories. Join us for a fast-paced tour of our own "Route 66" and see how many iconic places along the way you recognize! Registration begins May 17.

WOMEN ARTISTS AND THE BROOKLYN MUSEUM

Thursday, Jun. 8, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Judy Chicago's Dinner Party installation at the Brooklyn museum is not only an icon of 1970's feminist art, but also an important exploration of women and women's work throughout world history. Join Alena Sauzade as she discusses works by women artists in the Brooklyn Museum Collection. Registration begins May 17.

MAKING SENSE OF THE NEWS: BOTH REAL & FAKE

Wednesday, Jun. 14, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

If you feel overwhelmed by the massive amounts of news, propaganda, rumors and advertising that bombard you every day, you're not alone. Join Jonathan Anzalone of Stony Brook University's Center for News Literacy to learn about the current state of the news media and discuss methods for sorting fact from fiction in a confusing information landscape. Registration begins May 17.

BEING "THE OTHER" ON LONG ISLAND

Thursday, Jun. 15, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

The Suffolk Center on the Holocaust, Diversity and Human Understanding presents Being "The Other" on Long Island. This program will bring together a panel of diverse men and women who represent minority groups from Muslim, immigrant, LGBTQ and Jewish communities. A panel discussion will help us to understand the experiences of those often labeled "other." It is only in knowing and understanding their experiences that we can learn, grow and thrive as a community. There has never been a greater need than now. Please join us for this valuable discussion. Registration begins May 17.

In Memory of Philip Graia

TRADITIONAL CHINESE ARCHITECTURE

Monday, Jun. 19, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Since the Tang Dynasty (618–907), Chinese architecture has greatly influenced architectural styles of Korea, Vietnam, and Japan, and the West as well. Art historian Robert Reiss will talk about how the Chinese architects consciously and respectfully harmonized their buildings with the environment, anticipating today's trends towards "green" architecture. Registration begins May 17.

THE MAKING OF SGT. PEPPER'S LONELY HEARTS CLUB BAND

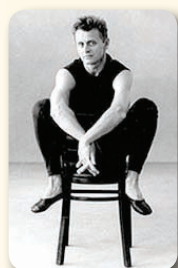

Monday, Jun. 26, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

June 2017 is the 50th anniversary of the record that changed Rock n' Roll! Arguably the most famous Beatles album, Sgt. Peppers saw the band transition from mere pop stars to revered, serious artists. How did they create their landmark album? Clive Young, Editor-In-Chief of recording industry magazine Pro Sound News, takes apart the album, track-by-track, follows the recording process and explores the iconic album cover to show how it all came together. Registration begins May 17.

MIKHAIL BARYSHNIKOV: PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST

Thursday, Jun. 29, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Mikhail Baryshnikov is unquestionably the greatest classical male dancer of the late 20th century. Dazzling audiences with his athleticism and grace, he reached celebrity status attracting new audiences to the world of dance. Marilyn Carminio will take us from his boyhood in Soviet occupied Latvia to his life in the west and will chart his course to the present day. In addition to many video clips, we will view The Sinatra Suite with music by Frank Sinatra and choreography by Twyla Tharp. Registration begins May 17.

CARING FOR YOUR SUMMER HERBS

Saturday, Jul. 8, 10:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Herbalist Heather Cusack will share her knowledge of harvesting summer's herbs. Learn about how to use your herbs in delicious drinks and recipes. Summer is a good time to add mulch and compost. Also keep the garden watered during hot, dry spells. We will also learn about some wild edible herbs.

Space is limited. Registration begins June 1.

CHAIR YOGA & THE ESSENCE OF SELF

Mondays, Jul. 10, 17 & 24, 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.

It's never too late to start taking care of yourself. Chair yoga allows you to gently exercise your body from the safety of a chair. Exercises will include a range of movements to stretch and strengthen all the joints of the body. Yoga helps to create an atmosphere of happiness within yourself, which will then expand to influence and involve the world around you. These classes are being taught by Certified Yoga Teacher, Sangeeta Gupta. Space is limited. Registration begins June 1.

EXPLORING FRENCH WINES

Wednesday, Jul. 12, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

APPLYING FOR JOBS ONLINE

Wednesday, Jul. 26, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Most companies use Applicant Tracking Systems (ATS) to screen potential job candidates; therefore, most résumés never make it through these systems. This workshop with Karen McKenna provides specific strategies job seekers can use to strengthen their résumés and make use of networking connections to get that interview. Registration begins June 1.

MUSIC THROUGH THE AGES

Thursday, Jul. 27, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Classical music is more than just a listening experience; it's also a glimpse into the past. Follow the evolution of piano music through the Middle Ages, Renaissance, Baroque, Classical and Romantic periods as we enjoy some of the most prominent pieces by notable composers during this era. Join Dan Lupo, music historian, on this journey. Registration begins June 1.

FIRE ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE:

LONG ISLAND'S WELCOMING BEACON

Wednesday, Aug. 9, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Bill Bleyer will tell the story of this national landmark from the first lighthouse on Fire Island in 1826, through construction of a new taller tower in 1858. He will also cover the modern history of the lighthouse from being shut down by the Coast Guard at the end of 1973 to its relighting in 1986. Registration begins July 3.

STAYING INDEPENDENT FOR LIFE:

FALL PREVENTION FOR OLDER ADULTS

Thursday, Aug. 10,
10:00 a.m. – Noon

Falls are the leading cause of injury for people who are 65 and older, causing loss of independence and even possible death. Staying active helps mature adults stay in shape, improves strength and overall health, and makes people feel good. It also helps prevent falls. This workshop is led by a health professional from the Suffolk County Department of Health Services. Topics include balance and strength training, and how to keep the home environment safe. Space is limited. Registration begins July 3.

CUBA 2017 — A DARK PAST, A BRIGHT FUTURE: AN AMERICAN'S VIEW FROM HAVANA

Monday, Aug. 14, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Chris Cloonan is a 26-year-old who decided to pursue the unthinkable: solving the 50+ year impasse between Cuba and the United States. Five years later, after completing his graduate studies in Cuba, he works to re-unite these two long-separated peoples. Learn about the history of this troubled relationship, his experiences on the ground in Cuba, and what role Americans can play. Registration begins July 3.

MACRAMÉ BRACELET

Tuesday, Aug. 15, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Katherine Haas will teach you to use brightly colored rope and a macramé technique to fashion a classic design bracelet. Colored rope options will be available to select from as well as clasps and findings. Space is limited. Registration begins July 3.

BEGINNER GUITAR WORKSHOP WITH CHRIS FURY

Wednesdays, Aug. 16, 23 & 30
7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Have you always want to play guitar? Do you have a guitar at home collecting dust? Come rock with Chris Fury, a native Long Island full-time guitarist. We will go over the fundamentals of guitar playing, including identifying parts of the guitar, proper fingering technique, scales, chords, and even tackle a song or two. Bring either an Electric or Acoustic guitar. No previous music or guitar experience is needed. Teens (10th grade and up) and adults are welcome. Space is limited. Registration begins July 3.

LATE SUMMER SEA BASS

Thursday, Aug. 17,
7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Join Newsday outdoors writer Tom Schlichter as he offers tips and insights on catching one of Long Island's most agreeable fin-fish—the Black Sea Bass. “Outdoor Tom” will highlight local hot spots, peak points in the season ahead, plus the baits, lures and techniques that work best for this tasty and fun-to-catch species. Tom will also provide a fall fishing forecast with insights into your best bets over the next few months. Don't miss this one! Registration begins July 3.

HEAR THE DRUM

Thursdays, Aug. 24 & 31,
7:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Move to the sound of the drums in this cultural dance class that pulls from the traditions of West Africa.

Students not only learn the movements of West African dance, but also the traditions and culture behind the dance itself. These classes are given by Khadijah S Abdus-Samad, Artistic Director of the Rhythm and Culture Dance Center. Space is limited. Registration begins July 3.

A tribute to the awesomeness of old-school video games

Join us on

August 3

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Come join us for a tribute to the awesomeness of old-school video games. Local resident Gale Putt is generously loaning us several classic gaming systems which she and her late husband Jay collected over several decades.

Re-experience games you played as a child, or those that your parents have told you about, in our Vincent R. O'Leary Community Room.

Sample favorites such as Pac Man, Donkey Kong, and Centipede.

No registration required. All ages welcome; children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

~ Philip Groia Collection ~

Philip Groia, who taught social studies at Paul J. Gelinus Jr. Junior High School for over 30 years and who passed away in 2014, left a substantial bequest to build a global studies collection at the library.

New items added to the Philip Groia Global Studies Collection can be found in the Delaney Room on the first floor of the library.

RECENT ADDITIONS TO THE COLLECTION INCLUDE:

No Friends but the Mountains: Dispatches from the World's Violent Highlands by Judith Matloff

Girl Rising by Tanya Lee Stone

A Hope More Powerful Than the Sea: One Refugee's Incredible Story of Love, Loss and Survival
by Melissa Fleming

Civil Wars: A History of Ideas by David Armitage

GLOBAL STUDIES PROGRAM:

Traditional Chinese Architecture – Monday, Jun. 19, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. (see page 21 for details)
