

REQUESTING ITEMS FROM OTHER LIBRARIES (ILL)

If you do not find what you are looking for in Emma Clark's catalog, you can broaden your search to the rest of the Suffolk County Consortium of public libraries by selecting 'All Libraries' from the drop down menu to the right of your search term and clicking 'Search'. The procedure for requesting items is the same as shown above. Please note: libraries have different rules about what they loan to other libraries. You will get an error message if your hold was not successfully placed. For further information and assistance, contact the reference desk.

The screenshot shows the Emma S. Clark Memorial Library website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Library Home', 'en Español', 'Help', and 'Login'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'gluten free' and a 'Search' button. A dropdown menu is open, showing a list of library locations including 'All Libraries', 'All Large Print', 'All Multi-Language', 'All Electronic Resources', 'All Long Island History', 'Amagansett', 'Amityville', 'Amityville Juvenile', 'Babylon', 'Babylon Juvenile', 'Bay Shore Brightwaters', 'Bayport Blue Point', 'Brentwood', 'Brookhaven', 'Center Moriches', 'Center Moriches Juvenile', 'Central Islip', 'Central Islip Juvenile', 'Cold Spring Harbor', and 'Commack'. A red arrow points to the 'All Libraries' option. Below the search bar, there are options to 'Add Selected to Cart', 'Add All On Page', and 'Add Selected to My Lists'. The search results show a book titled 'Gluten-Free Girl American classics reinvented' by Ahern, Shauna James, author. The book is available at 'EC-New Books' with the call number 'NEW 641.5638 AHERN'. The status is 'AVAILABLE'.
