Social Work Student Intern to Answer Your Questions – Each Week at the Library.

From September 2023 through May 2024, Emma Clark has graduate student Erin Vespoli*, from Stony Brook University's School of Social Welfare, on-site at the Library to answer questions from our community and help with filling out forms or seeking referrals on topics such as:

- Employment/Job Search
- Housing
- Paying utility bills
- Applying for benefits
- Education
- Medical Assistance
- Mental Health Issues
- Substance use
- Care Coordination
- Childcare Services
- and more

HOURS AT THE LIBRARY

TUESDAYS: 4:00 – 6:00 p.m.

WEDNESDAYS: 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

***Please note that Ms. Vespoli will not be in on the following dates (due to Stony Brook University's calendar): Tue., Oct. 10, Tue., Oct. 31, Wed., Nov. 22, Tue., Dec. 19, Wed., Dec. 20, Tue., Dec. 26 & Wed., Dec. 27.

This service is open to all ages.

Ms. Vespoli is here to answer questions but is not a therapist; referrals will be given to people looking for clinical therapy.

Conversations will be kept confidential. She is a mandated reporter for cases of neglect, abuse, or harm.

**Erin Vespoli is a mother of 3 who is in the Masters of Social Work Program at Stony Brook University training to become a Licensed Clinical Social Worker.*

Ms. Vespoli will meet with patrons in the Small Study Room on the Lower Level. Appointments are not required but strongly encouraged.

Appointments can be made as early as a week in advance at emmaclark.org/programs or ask the Librarians to do so for you by calling 631-941-4080, ext. 127.
