From the Stacks to New Adventures

After a total of 27 years working at Emma S. Clark Memorial Library and 15 years as Library Director, Ted Gutmann announced his retirement to the Board of Trustees on April 16. His tenure will conclude on June 30.

Mr. Gutmann's strong and unwavering leadership style brought Emma Clark up to date in connecting to modern times, while also upholding the traditional and historic. From creating Emma Clark's first website and leading the Library into the digital age with ebooks and online offerings, to turning the Library into a more inviting community space, his tremendous accomplishments are multifaceted. Mr. Gutmann saw the Library through the COVID-19 crisis and immediately continued with a groundbreaking construction project, including adding an outdoor terrace, reimagining the flow of the main reading room, and opening a café inside the Library.

All at the Library would like to take this time to thank Ted Gutmann for his many years of dedicated service to Emma Clark & wish him well on his future endeavors in this next chapter.
